Hour by Hour Forecast:

Current Weather Alerts:

Dense Fog Advisory

Temperatures:

- ✓ High temperatures into the mid 30's F are expected today with temperatures near 36 F.
- ✓ Low clouds should keep low temperatures into THU AM at bay around 34 F

Wind/Clouds:

- ✓ Winds will be out of the NE today and rather light around 3 - 6 MPH sustained.
- ✓ Plentiful cloud cover is expected through the day.
- ✓ In addition, fog/ lower visibilities will be a persistent feature today through the entirety of THU AM.

FORECAST NOTES

Today's Precipitation Chances:

Light rain chances will remain quite persistent into the evening hours of today. Heading into the early morning hours of tomorrow, there is a risk that drizzle/ sprinkles can mix in with fog.

Icing concerns?

Low confidence if ground temperatures can get cold enough for icing to occur with drizzle/ fog into the overnight. Current thinking is that ground temperatures remain too warm.

Dew/Frost:

Light drizzle/ wet surfaces will be possible into the overnight.

Rainfall totals through SAT AM

NEXT 5 DAYS: IMPORTANT FORECAST NOTES:

Precipitation:

- ✓ THU: Fog / drizzle will be possible through the AM and into the early afternoon. Better rain chances arrive after 4 - 5 PM. Will need to watch the track of a low closely as THU evening rain could be heavy with amounts near 1".
- ✓ FRI: Pending the timing of the low, some light rain showers can persist into the AM hours of FRI. FRI PM is expected to be on the drier side.
- ✓ SAT: Low confidence of Saturday pending the track of another low. There is a chance it misses just to the south. Rain chances look minimal at this distance.
- ✓ SUN: Sunday is expected to be dry at this distance.

Temperatures:

- ✓ Temperatures expected to remain marginal today before more seasonable air works in tomorrow, bringing daily highs in upper 30's F
- ✓ A warming trend is expected into next week.

Wind/Clouds:

- ✓ Fog chances can persist through FRI AM. Patchy fog cannot be ruled out through SAT AM.
- ✓ Plentiful clouds are expected over the next few days. Next week, more peaks of sunshine will be possible.
- ✓ Pending the track of the low, THU PM could have winds near 15 MPH sustained with gusts near 25 - 30 MPH.
