7:30 AM Weather Forecast

Hour by Hour Forecast:

Current Weather Alerts:

No Active Alerts

Temperatures:

- ✓ High Temperatures today will range near 38 - 39 F. Application may be a couple degrees too warm today for a high (showing 41 F) due persistent cloud cover.

Wind/Clouds:

- ✓ Skies will remain mostly cloudy today
- ✓ If there is a "sunnier" period today, it would be from 2 PM - 8 PM before cloudiness increases again with an incoming cold front
- ✓ Sustained winds from the SW will remain rather light at 5 - 10 mph. Gusts will not be a factor until the afternoon, at 17 - 22 mph. After 7 PM gusts uptick to 21 - 26 mph.

FORECAST NOTES

Today's Precipitation Chances:

Conditions will be dry today, however note the low levels of the atmosphere will be quite saturated with foggy/hazy conditions lingering through the early PM. Watching from about 12 AM - 4 AM early Tuesday morning for a weak cold front to drop light rain totals of around 0.1" (0.08 - 0.12 range).

Icing concerns?

Icing is no longer a threat with Tuesday AM cold front. Temperatures are too mild near 36 - 37 F.

Dew/Frost:

Wet surfaces are favored Tuesday AM from the light rain showers produced from the cold front. Drizzle and light showers will follow into the late AM/early PM.

Rainfall totals through Saturday

NEXT 5 DAYS: IMPORTANT FORECAST NOTES:

Precipitation:

- ✓ Tue: Cold front exits by 5 AM. Drizzle to light showers will follow behind the front, but additional rainfall of only a few hundredths of an inch will be at play into the afternoon.
- ✓ Wed: Lingering drizzle chances will look to exit by 10 AM. Partial clearing of skies will follow thereafter into the afternoon.
- ✓ Thu: Dry conditions favored for Thursday. A slight chance of rain showers will be possible in the late afternoon.
- ✓ FRI: Favoring a dry day.
- ✓ SAT: Favoring another dry day with any rain threats remaining to the SE.

Temperatures:

- ✓ Temps will continue to run above normal for this time of the year in the lower 40s
- ✓ Temperatures look to be in the mid 40s F for the middle portion of the week with a slight cool down to the lower 40s again for the weekend.

Wind/Clouds:

- ✓ There will be more clouds than sun for the short term at least through Wednesday AM
- ✓ Skies will be partly cloudy on Thursday and Friday and into the weekend
- ✓ Winds will seldom exceed 10 - 15 mph sustained over the next several days. In a cyclical pattern, gusts would be the highest in the early afternoon to evening near 20 - 25 mph especially on WED and FRI PM.
