8:30 AM Weather Forecast

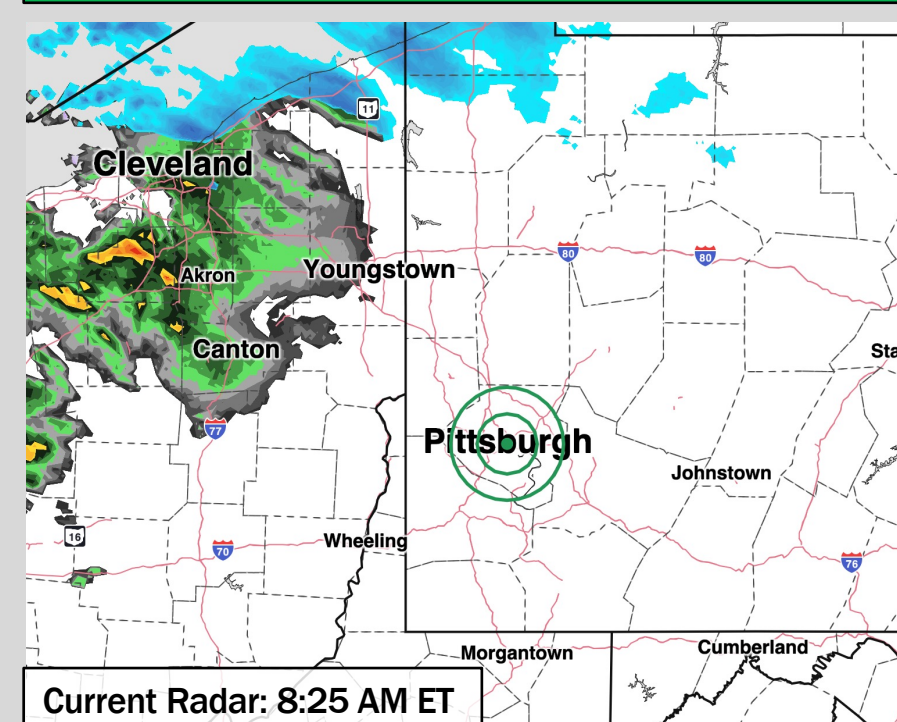

HOUR BY HOUR FORECAST:

Hazardous Weather Alerts:

None Forecasted

IMPORTANT FORECAST NOTES

A few light rain showers/sprinkles move in by ~10 AM ET and lingering in an isolated fashion through the early afternoon.

While coverage remains scattered in nature, 3 – 8PM holds a slightly higher risk for an isolated, brief moderate shower (up to 0.1”).

A few scattered light showers mixed with snow will be possible overnight (especially between 3 – 9AM ET). Not expecting any snow accumulation, but activity can keep the field damp into Tue. AM.

Dew Forecast

No dew expected but grass may remain wet from scattered shower activity.
