IMPORTANT FORECAST NOTES

- ✓ Favoring dry conditions throughout the morning hours. As early as 1PM we will need to watch for an isolated shower or a few sprinkles beginning to pop up.
- ✓ The highest risk for a few pop-up storms will pick up at 4PM through 8PM. Coverage will likely only be ~30% and any storms would be brief but can briefly produce heavy rain and lightning. These cells will be capable of quick 0.1 – 0.25” rain totals (locally higher).
- ✓ A few lingering isolated showers possible beyond 8PM for the rest of the evening with more widespread rain arriving overnight by 3PM.

Dew Forecast

Wet grounds likely from overnight rain.
