IMPORTANT FORECAST NOTES

- ✓ The most widespread shower risks this morning are expected to stay south, but a few isolated showers (20 % risk) will be possible. Rain totals would be less than 0.05" with any showers.
- ✓ After 12PM, scattered pop-up storms and downpours can ramp up (~30 - 40% coverage). Any cell can produce briefly heavy rain and lightning along with 30+ MPH wind gusts. However, the most widespread / persistent storm coverage will remain south. Localized rain totals of 0.5"+ with heavier cells.
- ✓ These risks linger through ~6 - 8 PM with additional scattered shower and storm risks overnight.

Dew Forecast

Grounds will likely be wet Fri AM from overnight rain.
